2024 Idaho Conference Camp Meeting!

David Prest Jr., President, Idaho Conference

Mountaintop Silence to Life-changing Mission is the theme for the 2024 Idaho Conference Camp Meeting. I invite you to join us June 11 – 15, on the campus of beautiful Gem State Adventist Academy. It will be an in-person Camp Meeting experience. As usual, the English language evening meetings and the Sabbath morning worship service will be livestreamed. The Spanish language meetings will be livestreamed as well.

We are thrilled that Dr. Derek Morris will serve as the evening and Sabbath morning speaker for the English language Camp Meeting. Derek Morris currently serves as a Field Representative for Hope Channel International, Inc., and host of Hope Sabbath School, an in-depth interactive study of the Word of God broadcast worldwide on Hope Channel. They currently have Hope Sabbath School members in over 200 countries around the world!

Born in England, his greatest joy is found in helping people to experience a life-changing encounter with the Lord Jesus Christ. We welcome him to the Idaho Conference Camp Meeting.

We are excited that Elder Benjamin Carballo will serve as the speaker for the Spanish language Camp Meeting. He served as a pastor, youth director, and evangelist for two conferences in Mexico. He was the youth and family ministries director for the Southern Mexican Union and served as the youth director of the Inter-American Division. Currently, he is the Hispanic Ministries Coordinator for the Nevada-Utah Conference. We welcome him to the Idaho Conference Camp Meeting.

Several engaging speakers are scheduled for the daily meetings and seminars. Professor Brant Berglin will present on relevant themes from the Book of Revelation. He will also present our 8 a.m. devotional meetings. He is an associate professor in the School of Theology at Walla Walla University. He teaches Greek and New Testament.

Elder Don Klinger will speak on stories from the Book of Daniel. These stories are particularly relevant to Christians facing the challenges of an increasingly hostile, anti-Christian culture. The stories give God's people hope and assurance as they face an uncertain future and prepare for the Second Coming. He is also our weekly 11 a.m. speaker.

He served as the vice president for administration and assistant to the president for the Idaho Conference. He has re-retired and he and his wife, Linda, reside in Florida.

Heidi Baumgartner will be presenting Sacred Bytes to help you craft your own digital testimony for spiritual and development. She is a respected creative communication professional in the Pacific Northwest. Baumgartner excels in crafting content and strategies to engage audiences through social media, digital platforms, and print channels.

In August 2023, Baumgartner joined the North Pacific Union Conference team to serve as communication director and Gleaner executive editor. She previously worked for 18 years as communication director for Washington Conference. We plan to have a Health Seminar, but the speaker is yet to be determined.

I look forward to see you at the upcoming
Idaho Conference Camp
Meeting!

We are pleased to offer an adult art class in acrylic painting. It will be taught by Julie Gee. She has a BA in Art Education for grades k-12, with an emphasis in painting. Julie will lead a class in acrylic landscape painting, step by step. Acrylic paint is easy for beginners and super fun! It's very versatile; it can mimic both watercolor and oil painting, depending on what you desire. It is water based but once it dries, it will not wash out of clothes, so wear something appropriate! Her goal is for everyone to have a good time, unlock new skills, and finish a painting worthy of hanging in their homes!

Our Sabbath afternoon concert will be brought to us by Luis LaPorte, an Adventist singer based in North Carolina. If you would like to listen to some of his music ahead of time, please visit his website, <https://www.luislaporte.com>. He sings in both English and Spanish and is looking forward to worshiping with us through music.

Young adults – watch Facebook, Instagram and your church bulletins for further information.

I love Camp Meeting! It is the annual gathering of God's people from Southern Idaho and Eastern Oregon and beyond. Meetings will be offered for our children and young people of every age group.

I look forward to seeing you at the upcoming Idaho Conference Camp Meeting, June 11 – 15, 2024, on the campus of Gem State Adventist Academy. # Prayer Conference 2023

Tina Heid, Idaho Conference Prayer Ministries Team

What a privilege it was to have Rick and Cindy Mercer at our prayer conference this past November. Rick and Cindy had a powerful message about God's power over addiction and how God strengthens and enables those who walk with someone who is struggling with addiction. We were so motivated by their PRAY BIG mentality. They don't just preach it, they live it. So many were inspired to have a bigger, more devoted prayer life.

One person said "I just wanted to let you know that the prayer conference has really changed my prayer life. I am much more likely to think of and actually pray when something good or bad happens. I also have begun praying almost every time I talk to church members. I just wanted to let you know that you and the prayer conference had a lasting impact on me. Thank you so much and God bless!"

Some more comments about the prayer conference.

"Awesome people, what a blessing!"

"Great witnesses, both of them!"

"I am spiritually full and I know the Lord will use me."

"It's about my change of habit!"

That's what prayer conference does, it encourages us to have a more dynamic and devoted prayer life. It prompts us to make prayer the focus of our life.

"And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people."

Ephesians 6:18 NIV

May the Idaho Conference be the conference that is known for Praying Big.

Warm Strains of Music at GSAA

Marta Stone, Communications, Gem State Adventist Academy

Gem State Adventist Academy loves to open its doors to guests, whether that be potential students who come for a tour, sports teams from other schools who come for a good match, or elementary students who come for events such as Pathfinder events, Academy Days, or music festivals.

In January, 5th-8th graders were invited to come learn and sing with the GSAA choir and chorale, under the direction of Professor Stephen Zork of Andrews University. This annual event starts first thing on a Friday morning and continues throughout the day with students learning several songs as well as a variety of musical techniques, interspersed with break times and meals. Local students go home in the evening while those who travel for the event stay on campus. Sabbath morning, the festival continues, with time to worship together. After lunch, parents and community are invited to enjoy a culminating concert.

Mr. Ronnie Anderson met Stephen Zork at the NAD Educators' Convention in Phoenix in August of 2023. They enjoyed getting acquainted and laid plans for Professor Zork to come to GSAA to direct in the choral festival. Everything was set for the weekend and when the time came, Mr. Zork arrived in Idaho from Michigan . . . and then Mother Nature stepped in.

An arctic storm moved in, with extreme winter weather forecasted for the weekend, making plans uncertain. After many prayers, Friday morning found a large group of elementary students joining the GSAA singing groups and working hard right from the start under Mr. Zork's talent and instruction. Seventy-five students had signed up for the festival, and all but eighteen were able to make it, including two of the three groups who had to travel from outside the valley.

Sabbath morning, many of the elementary students joined the academy for the church service, where a GSAA Junior preached and some of the Senior class led in music. "The younger students were able to see our GSAA students passionate about being involved in church and setting the example for the future, which is very exciting to me," says Anderson.

By Sabbath afternoon, these young musicians were ready and eager to perform for their audience, and while snow fell steadily outside, inside all were warmed with the gorgeous sounds of approximately 100 voices raised in song. All who were able to attend were blessed.

The choral festival benefits all who participate. Some of the elementary students do not have music programs at their schools and this gives them the opportunity to sing with others their age. A number of the students will use the festival songs in their own schools and when they participate in their home churches, and parents have reported that they hear their kids humming the tunes at home or school. The GSAA musicians have the opportunity to mentor, as well as benefit from the instruction.

Anderson concludes, "I praise God that we were able to have this event even through the weather and that everyone arrived safely and returned home safely!"

Brant Berglin

Camp Meeting Guest Speaker — Revelation Seminar

Brant Berglin joined the Walla Walla University School of Theology in January of 2013, now teaching as an Associate Professor of New Testament and Greek.

Originally from California, Brant graduated with a degree in Theology in June of 1995 from Walla Walla College, minoring in Physical Education. He spent 4 years pastoring in Alaska interning in Dillingham, Anchorage, Fairbanks and North Pole before becoming pastor of the North Pole and Delta Junction district. Brant completed a Master of Divinity degree at Andrews University, then returned to Alaska to pastor and plant a new church in the Anchorage metro area, including Eagle River.

Although pastoral ministry was rewarding, teaching and Biblical Study have been Brant's passion and calling, so he and his family returned to Andrews University in 2007 to begin his PhD in Religion, New Testament Studies. His doctoral dissertation (in progress) focuses on narrative in Revelation. While at Andrews this second time, he gained more ministry experience both in the local Stevensville church as an elder, and at the Theological Seminary as a contract Greek teacher and tutor, cementing his love for sharing the Bible with students in the classroom.

At Walla Walla, he teaches Greek, Biblical interpretation, the Gospels, and studies in Daniel and Revelation. One of the delights of teaching is interacting with students outside the classroom—worshiping, fellowshiping, serving, and playing together.

Living in the great Northwest, near family, friends, and the mountains, is a dream-come-true for Brant. In his free time, he enjoys playing the guitar, reading, and outdoor activities like cycling, disc golf and others, especially with his grown children, Conner and Cami.

Don Klinger

Camp Meeting Guest Speaker — Daniel Seminar

Don Klinger has been an Adventist pastor and administrator for 50 years. He served the Idaho Conference as VP for Administration from 1999-2013, and as Assistant to the President from 2017-2023. Prior to coming to Idaho, he served as an Adventist Church pastor. Don and his wife Linda have been married 54 years and have two daughters and four grandchildren. He recently retired and now he and Linda reside in Deltona Florida.

He enjoys presenting sermons and seminars on the stories in the book of Daniel at camp meetings, worship services and church retreats. These stories are particularly relevant to Christians facing the challenges of an increasingly hostile, anti-Christian culture. The stories give God's people hope and assurance as they face an uncertain future and prepare for the Second Coming.

Children & Youth Information

Parents!

All divisions, Beginner through Youth, have the same basic schedule. Only changes may be when groups go off-campus.

Watch the website, www.IdahoAdventist.org and the Camp Meeting Facebook, www.Facebook/idahocampmeeting for updated information, including division leaders.

Ways to help your child have the best experience at camp meeting programs:

The programs are designed for specific age ranges. Your child may be frustrated or bored if he/she attends a program out of his/her age group. (See schedule for ranges.)

If you want to visit with other parents, please go outside to limit the distraction to the children.

To avoid distractions for the children, please limit entering/exiting the room when a meeting is in session.

For Beginners, children need to have a parent or adult guardian with them at all times. It would be ideal to have one adult for every child.
